Application to Enroll in Evening Block Section - Spring 2008
C&I 4303–Approaches to Teaching SS, Language & Fine Arts & RDG 4733–Literacy Problems EC-4

All students who are able, should enroll in a blocked section of C&I 4303 that is offered during the daytime. However under certain circumstances, students are permitted to enroll in an evening section of C&I 4303.

Enrollment in the evening sections is restricted. Evening sections of C&I 4303 and linked sections of RDG 4733 are restricted to students who:

• are currently employed in a school setting;
• are full-time/daytime employees whose employers agree to allow them to do field work during the day;
• are BBL students participating in Libro Grant Program
• are Post-Bach students
• all level Special Education

Fieldwork for RDG 4733 will take place in the evening in UTSA Reading Place/Plaza de Lectura. To be considered for evening sections, students must submit an application to the ILT department chair. Students must be admitted to the Teacher Certification Program before applying for admission to evening block and meet all prerequisites for these courses. (Post-bach students must meet requirements of their program for these courses.)
