Earn a Master’s Degree/Principal Certification in as few as 16 Months at UTSA!

UTSA’s Accelerated Leadership Program for Schools (ALPS)

Are you interested in a master’s degree and principal certification program that:

- Meets only one evening per week in the long semesters?
- Meets for only one class at a time?
- Combines the best of face-to-face and online delivery?
- Enables you to go through the program as a cohort to form career-lasting relationships?
- Provides both Instructional Leadership Development and Professional Development and Appraisal System training?
- Begins in Fall 2010 and concludes in Fall 2011?
- Has a proven record of success on the TExES principal exam?

Then you are interested in UTSA’s Accelerated Leadership Program for Schools (ALPS)

The third cohort for the highly-successful UTSA-ALPS program is forming for this fall. Classes leading to the master’s degree and principal certification begin in fall 2010 and conclude in fall 2011. Please see the gray box to your right for an upcoming information session.
