The Department of Educational Psychology in the College of Education and Human Development at the University of Texas at San Antonio, invites applications for one tenure-track position at the Assistant Professor level beginning Fall 2011 in School Psychology.

Responsibilities include teaching; advising and supervising students in field placements; conducting an active program of research; seeking grant funding; and providing service to the department, college, and university.

Required Qualifications include: (1) earned doctorate in School Psychology by August 15, 2011 from a recognized school psychology program accredited by NASP or the American Psychological Association (APA); and (2) possess or be eligible for Texas licensure (Licensed Psychologist or Licensed Specialist in School Psychology).

Preferred Qualifications: (1) teaching experience at the graduate level that includes applied behavior analysis, response to intervention, and/or curriculum-based assessment; (2) research experience in single-case designs and applied behavioral interventions; and (3) teaching experience related to culturally and linguistically diverse populations.

Initial Screening: Qualified candidates must submit an application letter that addresses required and preferred qualifications and current curriculum vitae; 1-2 page description of research agenda; copies of official transcripts; and names, addresses, email addresses, and telephone numbers of three references. The review of applications will begin immediately and will continue until the position is filled.

All applicants should send application materials to: Dr. Norma Guerra, Department of Educational Psychology, University of Texas at San Antonio, 501 West Durango Boulevard, DB 4.330; San Antonio, Texas 78207-4415; Email: paul.schutz@utsa.edu.

The UTSA is an Affirmative Action/Equal Employment Opportunity Employer. Women minorities, veterans, and individuals with disabilities are encouraged to apply. Applicants who are selected for interviews must be able to show proof that they will be eligible and qualified to work in the United States by the time of hire. This position is pending budget approval.