ANNOUNCEMENT

GRADUATE ASSISTANTSHIP
DEPARTMENT OF BICULTURAL-BILINGUAL STUDIES and ESL SERVICES
THE UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS AT SAN ANTONIO

Description of Responsibilities
A graduate student is being sought to hold an assistantship with the Department of Bicultural-Bilingual Studies. Responsibilities of the assistantship will include assisting the Director of the ESL Services Office in duties as assigned, to include: (a) helping in the assessment process for English for International Students (EIS) courses; (b) processing responses to inquiries from prospective students; (c) coordinating with the International Student Advisor and admissions personnel on matters related to the EIS program; (d) other responsibilities and duties as assigned. The graduate assistantship will be for 19 hours per week beginning the first week of January, Spring 2011. Must be available for 2 weeks of training in December.

Qualifications
Candidates must have completed a bachelor’s degree and been admitted for graduate work in the Department of Bicultural-Bilingual Studies. Candidates must maintain enrollment in at least six hours of graduate course during the full period of the assistantship. Candidates must have a minimum GPA of 3.0 in graduate work, or if entering the program, a 3.0 GPA in the last 60 hours of undergraduate work. Successful experience in working with students in a helping relationship is desirable; some experience in use of computers is preferred.

Salary
Candidates may be paid $4,000 - $4,500 per semester (depending on qualifications), based on a 19-hour work week.

Applications
Candidates should submit a letter of application indicating background and experience, a resume, and a list of 3 references (with full contact information), to the following address:

Dr. Robert D. Milk, Chair
Bicultural-Bilingual Studies
The University of Texas at San Antonio
1 UTSA Circle
