HEASA
HIGHER EDUCATION ADMINISTRATION STUDENT ASSOCIATION

PURPOSE STATEMENT

The Higher Education Administration Student Association (HEASA) recognizes the importance of academic and social integration for well-balanced graduate students’ lives. Fully cognizant of this, HEASA’s purpose is to provide opportunities for integrated activities that help foster educational, social, career, and professional advancement.

ACTIVITIES

- Annual HEASA Distinguished Lecture
- Professional development in student and academic affairs
- Outreach and knowledge production about improving college outcomes
- Developing multicultural competence in student affairs

MEMBERSHIP

Regular Members (Voting): Graduate students in good standing enrolled in the ELPS program with emphasis in Higher Ed. Administration or Ed. Leadership programs. Members are officially registered at UTSA and have paid their membership dues. Alumni of both programs will be counted as voting members for two years after their graduation date.

Student Affiliate Members (Voting): Graduate students enrolled in any other academic programs, in good academic standing, officially registered at UTSA, have paid membership dues, are fully supportive of the purpose, and the constitution of this association.

Staff Affiliate Members (Non-Voting): Staff members are employees of UTSA interested in professional development training and activities.

Alumni Members (Non-Voting): Graduates of the ELPS programs for more than two years, interested in professional development and networking opportunities afforded by HEASA programming.

Cost of Membership: $25.00 per academic year
