

THE DIANNA LYNN TIDWELL SCHOLARSHIP

APPLICATION DEADLINE: March 30, 2018

Dianna Lynn Tidwell was born on March 12, 1962 with several complications. The challenges Dianna and her family faced throughout her life were made easier by dedicated teachers and health care providers trained to aid those with extraordinary needs. This scholarship was established in 1996 by her brother, UTSA alumnus Michael Tidwell, in her memory, to assist with the education of undergraduate students pursuing careers as teachers of persons with congenital physical or mental challenges.

To be eligible for this scholarship you must meet the following requirements:

- Must be enrolled full-time (12 hours) at The University of Texas at San Antonio as an undergraduate student.
- Must be a graduate of a high school located in the state of Texas.
- Must be actively pursuing an Interdisciplinary Studies (IDS) degree with a concentration in Generic Special Education.
- Must have attained at least a junior standing (satisfactory completion of at least 60 hours).
- Must have submitted an application to the Teacher Certification Program at UTSA.
- Must have a minimum cumulative GPA of at least a 3.0 on a 4.0 scale and be in good academic standing.
- Among equally qualified applicants, priority will be given to graduates of San Antonio's Sam Houston High School and/or to students who demonstrate financial need as determined by the UTSA Financial Aid office.*

* You are not required to demonstrate financial need to receive this scholarship. However, among equally qualified applicants, students with financial need will be prioritized. Determination of financial need is based on the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). Please submit your FAFSA as early as possible.
