Undergraduate Student Advising

CFAC vs. COEHD Advising & Certification Center:

The Colleges’ Freshman Advising Centers (CFAC) (1604 Campus) assists freshmen (students with less than 30 hours) and transfer freshmen with declared majors. The College of Education and Human Development (COEHD) Undergraduate Advising and Teacher Certification Center (1604 Campus) assists sophomores and above (students with 30+ hours).

Colleges’ Freshman Advising Center Information:

Web-site: http://www.utsa.edu/cfac/
Location: MS 2.02.18
Telephone: 210-458-5170
Fax: 210-458-6281
E-mail: cfac@utsa.edu

College of Education and Human Development (COEHD) Undergraduate Advising and Teacher Certification Center Information

Web-site: http://education.utsa.edu/current_students/advising
Location: MB 3.214
Telephone: 210-458-4424
Fax: 210-458-5410
E-mail: COEHDAdvising@utsa.edu

The Downtown Undergraduate Advising Center (DTUAC) assists all majors regardless of classification

Web-site: http://www.utsa.edu/dtuac/
Location: BV 1.304
Telephone
Telephone  210-458-2550
Fax:
Fax:  210-458-2575
E-mail:
E-mail:  dtadvising@utsa.edu

It is in the student’s interest to stay with one Advising Center to assure continuity.

Consult the Undergraduate Student Handbook (on the COEHD web site) for more detailed information regarding policies, procedures, and academic advising.