I have met with my Internship Coordinator and am aware of all course and program requirements. I understand that while I may complete a maximum of two Internship courses (6 credits) to be applied towards my Bachelor's degree requirements, only one course (3 credits) may count towards my Women's Studies major requirements. I understand that my placement and participation in the Women's Studies Internship Program is contingent upon my employment at the said placement site, and that I must secure my internship placement by the start of classes for the said term. Additionally, termination from my placement site will result in a failing grade (F) or the semester. I am also aware that, if I for any reason am not able to successfully complete the course requirements, I cannot be granted an Incomplete (IN), and I may be issued a failing grade for WS 4933 Internship Course.
